Scout leader sentenced for rapes

A Rocky River man has been sentenced to four to 25 years in prison for molesting eight boys when he was a scoutmaster for a Boy Scouts of America troop in Parma.

Kurt W. Leckler, 29, who led the Parma troop since 1978, left the organization after he was indicted in February. He pleaded guilty to three counts of rape and five counts of gross sexual imposition involving the boys, who range in age from 11 to 17.

Some incidents occurred while the troop was on outings and others took place at Leckler's Center Ridge Rd. apartment, police and prosecutors said.

Common Pleas Judge Ralph A. McAllister sentenced Leckler Monday.

Rocky River detectives began interviewing members of the troop after the Cuyahoga County Department of Human Services received a complaint from a scout.

William E. Gerstenslager, who prepared the prosecution's case, said Leckler initiated encounters with the boys slowly, to test their reaction, then continued until he was rebuffed.

Leckler worked as a material-control analyst for a Westlake company until he resigned after being indicted.

Defense lawyer Paul W. Cassidy said Leckler had been receiving psychiatric treatment.

"It's something for which he has sincere remorse," said Cassidy.

Scoutmaster is guilty of rapes

Former Parma scoutmaster Kurt Leckler of Rocky River faces between five and 25 years in prison on each of three rape charges involving young boys that he pleaded guilty to Monday in Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court.

Leckler is free on bond and awaiting sentencing before Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court Judge Ralph McAllister after pleading guilty to three counts of rape and three counts of gross sexual imposition involving young boys, a majority of whom were members of his scouting troop. Leckler also faces between six months and five years in prison on each count of gross sexual imposition, police said.

Leckler had been indicted by the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury the past two months on 39 gross sexual imposition and rape charges, some instances dating back to 1974, police said.

Leckler agreed to plead guilty to the three counts of rape and five counts of gross sexual imposition as well as supply police with a list of the juveniles with whom he had sexual contact, police said.

In the plea bargaining, police said, the age of the juveniles who were victims of the sex charges were not disclosed. Leckler could have faced life imprisonment if the youths involved were under age 13, police said. Police earlier said the gross sexual imposition and rapes involved boys ranging in age from 13 to 18.

"We wanted an accurate list of the victims so they could be contacted for counseling," a police spokesman said. A majority but not all of the victims were troop members, police said. Some of the victims were abused 11 years ago and are currently adults, police said.

The gross sexual imposition and rapes were reported to have taken place in Leckler's Center Ridge Road apartment or at scouting camps in and out of Ohio.

Dear Jim:

You recently sent us a letter concerning the above-named individual. We notice that the newspaper article indicates the name as Leckler. We would like to know for future reference purposes which spelling is correct.

I am enclosing a Confidential Record Sheet which I would like to have completed. This will enable us to identify the above-named individual should he move to some other section of the country and try to register with the Boy Scouts of America.

I would also like to know the outcome of the sentencing when it occurs. This should then complete the file and give us the necessary information for refusal. Let us know if we may be of any help to you.

Dear Paul:

One of our Scoutmasters should not be registered with the Boy Scouts of America. He is Kurt W. Leckner, [REDACTED] Rocky River, Ohio 44116. Mr. Leckner was Scoutmaster of Troop 263, chartered to the Parma South Presbyterian Church.

A problem with him first came to our attention on February 26 with a call from the Rocky River Police Department. Details of charges against him are outlined in the attached news article.

He is a member of the chartered organization and the pastor and troop committee took fast action to relieve him of his duties.

Based on this information, we believe Kurt Leckner should not have any association with the Boy Scouts of America now or in the future.

Sincerely,

Jim Bartel
